

You're invited—Join us at a live seminar to learn how Adobe Acrobat 8 can help teaching, learning, and administrative activities flow.

Don't miss out! Adobe experts will show you how to use the all-new Acrobat 8 to meet the challenge of sharing information and communicating with anyone, anywhere. Discover how the Adobe Acrobat Family of products empowers you to let essential information flow on a day-to-day basis to improve communication and collaboration — and get work done.

Register today!

At the seminar:

- Discover the enhanced functionality of Adobe Acrobat 8, Acrobat Connect™ Professional, and Adobe Connect Training — all powerful tools for eLearning.
- Learn how to develop and deploy curriculum and training materials using the tools in the Acrobat family.
- Enjoy a truly entertaining presentation about the Vision of Acrobat. Find out where Acrobat is going, and how you can go with it.
- See Acrobat in Action. Witness a real-world scenario in which a project manager uses the Acrobat family to coordinate the flow of information among multiple departments.
- Learn how to use Adobe Captivate™ and Flash® to create secure multimedia Adobe PDF files.

Who should attend

- K-12 Administrators and Teachers
- Higher Education Administrators and Faculty
- Education Consultants
- Technology Coordinators
- eLearning Professionals

Adobe Acrobat 8 Professional is part of the Acrobat family of products.

Coming to the following cities:*

Chicago	Oct. 31
Toronto	Nov. 14
Irvine	Nov. 17
San Francisco	Nov. 30
New York	Dec. 4

register today

Each seminar will run from 8:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. (Registration begins at 7:30 a.m.)

Tom Hale to present the Opening Address

Tom Hale, Senior Vice President of Adobe's Knowledge Worker Solutions Business Unit, leads the expansion of Adobe solutions that streamline communication and collaboration.

invite a colleague

Sponsored by:

